

I strongly support the "Do not call" program. Bothersome calls to my home have been dramatically reduced. Additionally, my 86 year-old mother is also no longer bothered by telemarketers who previously would try to sell her things that she did not need or want. I appreciate "Do not call" program and support it. Thank you.